

• Diverse and award-winning faculty members, dedicated to helping students find their own unique voices • Regular networking opportunities with agents, editors, and publishing professionals • Need-based scholarships and annual fellowships in all genres, and the Kurt Brown Fellowship for Diverse Voices • An intimate, inclusive program environment • Concentrations in fiction, writing for children and young adults, creative nonfiction, comics and graphic narratives, and poetry • Cross-genre study through craft classes and electives • An Applied Track in Pedagogy for college-level teaching • A vibrant and supportive Alumni Association.

• Diverse and award-winning faculty members, dedicated to helping students find their own unique voices • Regular networking opportunities with agents, editors, and publishing professionals • Need-based scholarships and annual fellowships in all genres, and the Kurt Brown Fellowship for Diverse Voices • An intimate, inclusive program environment • Concentrations in fiction, writing for children and young adults, creative nonfiction, comics and graphic narratives, and poetry • Cross-genre study through craft classes and electives • An Applied Track in Pedagogy for college-level teaching • A vibrant and supportive Alumni Association.

Diverse and award-winning faculty members, dedicated to helping students find their own unique voices
Regular networking opportunities with agents, editors, and publishing professionals
Need-based scholarships and annual fellowships in all genres, and the Kurt Brown Fellowship for Diverse Voices
An intimate, inclusive program environment
Concentrations in fiction, writing for children and young adults, creative nonfiction, comics and graphic narratives, and poetry
Cross-genre study through craft classes and electives
An Applied Track in Pedagogy for college-level teaching
A vibrant and supportive Alumni Association.

• Diverse and award-winning faculty members, dedicated to helping students find their own unique voices • Regular networking opportunities with agents, editors, and publishing professionals • Need-based scholarships and annual fellowships in all genres, and the Kurt Brown Fellowship for Diverse Voices • An intimate, inclusive program environment • Concentrations in fiction, writing for children and young adults, creative nonfiction, comics and graphic narratives, and poetry • Cross-genre study through craft classes and electives • An Applied Track in Pedagogy for college-level teaching • A vibrant and supportive Alumni Association.

• Diverse and award-winning faculty members, dedicated to helping students find their own unique voices • Regular networking opportunities with agents, editors, and publishing professionals • Need-based scholarships and annual fellowships in all genres, and the Kurt Brown Fellowship for Diverse Voices • An intimate, inclusive program environment • Concentrations in fiction, writing for children and young adults, creative nonfiction, comics and graphic narratives, and poetry • Cross-genre study through craft classes and electives • An Applied Track in Pedagogy for college-level teaching • A vibrant and supportive Alumni Association.

